

WHY DID YOU DECIDE TO ARREST HIM?

well, justice needs to be done, I guess. letting people get away with crimes doesn't set a good example. a person who collaborates with the enemy has to be punished in some way or another so that the others learn a lesson.

HOW DID THE ARREST GO? DID HE PUT UP A FIGHT?

actually, he didn't resist at all. it looked like he expected to be arrested any day, though maybe not by americans. despite our expectations he didn't put up a fight. we have seen people in his position commit suicide rather than be taken prisoner but I guess he was too much of a coward to kill himself.

WHAT DID YOU DO WITH HIM AFTER ARRESTING HIM?

we led him out of the house, handcuffed him and put him in the car and then drove him back to the village. then we turned him over to the authorities. trust me, we had nothing to do with what happened next, whatever it was.

HOW COME HE DISAPPEARED AND NO ONE KNOWS WHERE HE IS?

I'm afraid I can't answer that question. I mean, they may have executed him and the body may have been buried. the villagers knew that if there was a trial, it would take ages and if he got a good lawyer he might have to be released. so I suppose they took the matter in their own hands by killing him, getting rid of the body and pretending not to know anything. well, does that answer all your questions? good.
