

audrey blow-off (4) the reply, part three

Why would you want your friend to _____ in a word for you, Guy? You're already out, man. You don't have to worry about _____ anything go. Audrey lost interest in you the _____ she jumped off that bar stool and went after Mister Unknown. It was a pretty good indication that she was giving you the cold shoulder when she pretended she couldn't _____ you from the waiter.

But I don't care if that guy was her brother who was living in Japan and she hadn't seen him in 10 years. She could have introduced you to him, she could have been polite to you, she could have _____ out gracefully -- but like I said, this girl has no _____ and no manners.

Why did she ignore you, Guy? Because you had her _____ up with someone who was actually interested in you. And let me _____ you again - there's no comparison between 30 minutes of conversation and 10 full dates.

At the _____ of the day, Guy, your expectations were _____ too high. _____ because a woman talks to you for a half-hour doesn't mean anything. Absolutely nothing. Remember, guys: when the ether _____ off, you're out.

bowed » class » end » just » letting » minute » mixed » put » remind » tell » way » wears