

I'm wondering which one of these cups to buy pick the one I was telling you about don't get caught while you're carrying it off my sister doesn't think there's going to be a test I wonder what it's like to get an offer to leave was the chimney supposed to fall the way it did?
who said we were building the fence?
are we ever going to be told?
should I care? I don't think so it doesn't matter anyway, does it? you could have sold him but you didn't it was no one else's fault
