

sailing the boat /4/ the workings of joey's mind

Rachel: No, I did not see the bird! I did not see the fish! I did not see the piece of Styrofoam that was shaped like Mike Tyson,! I did not, because I was trying to teach you how to sail a boat! obviously is an impossible thing

coming

dammit

did

Joey: All right, that's! You're yelling and I don't see you taking your shirt! I quit!

done

Rachel: What do you you quit?! You can't quit just like that! You're not yet and I won't have it! Greens do not quit! ... Oh my God, did I just say Greens don't quit?! Oh God, I'm my father. I've been so hard not to be my mother I did not see this Joey, I'm sorry. I just wanted you to learn.

duck

either

it

mean

off

Joey: I learn. I know what a mainsail is. I know to when the big pole comes across. I know port is right.

to do

Rachel: Left.

trying

Joey:

which