

sailing the boat /3/ a bunch of stuff I didn't know

Joey and Rachel are on the boat.

Rachel: You're really well! I can't believe how much you've learned. Now I'm just gonna need you to step to the port side. It's left sweetie, but that's okay, that's a tough The left! Just sit over there!

Joey: Okay, you're yelling again! You promised not to yell any more. Just quit giving me such a hard Oh, y'know what? I'm here, I think I'm gonna have a little beer.

Rachel: Okay, we're luffing a little bit, so could you tighten up the cunningham?

Joey: You just said a bunch of stuff I didn't know. How am I to know what all those words mean? I've never heard any of them before.

Rachel: You can't be serious! We just went this!

Joey: We? That have been when that bird was flying overhead with the fish in his mouth. Did you see it? It was did

doing

gross

must

one

over

since

supposed

time

weird