

bs intro • my parents

Anyway, apart from giving me that name, my parents are ok, I guess. When I get bad grades in school, they usually don't make a big deal out of it. They know I'm pretty smart and my grades will improve eventually. Although my mom thinks I brag too much about how smart I am and she calls me a know-it-all I know she's just teasing me. I'm sure she's proud of me and she likes to see me do well in school. And I do pretty well in school. I could do even better but there's no need to. Not yet. Maybe one day when I go to college, it won't be enough just to sit in class and listen to the teacher talk but so far I haven't had to study too hard.
