

little brother <sup>easy</sup> / 1 / why not us?

When the television series ..... our TV screens, ..... it much. But I ..... we could play our own version of Big Brother in our household. I ..... a big mistake but .....

The similarities between the game show and our family life .....: six people ..... in a horrible house in the suburbs of London, ..... privacy and no hope of escape, forced ..... each other ..... all their differences and ..... they will soon begin to .....

Our house ..... exactly like the Big Brother house: the ..... conversation, the ..... games, the ..... that ..... for those involved. The big difference, ....., was that in the television series, the contestants ..... choose one person ..... kicked out. I ..... a great idea. If they could do it, then why not us? If they could get rid of ....., ..... we.

So I gathered my wife and the boys together in the kitchen and ..... nominate two members of the family. ..... it was my idea, I ..... in the nomination. But everyone else disagreed.
