

ellen's father

Ellen: Alex, I am very _____ this. I don't want to see my father.

Alex: Ellen, he wants to see you. He said he was really _____
_____.

Ellen: That's really strange.

Alex: What's so strange _____ it?

Ellen: _____ don't _____ at all. We've _____ said a word _____ the last five years and when _____, it usually _____ a _____ the first two minutes.

Alex: I _____ I _____ him _____, huh?

Ellen: The man has no _____ for _____ I live my life, for the things _____ are important _____ me. _____ is business, profits, _____ money.

Alex: I'm shocked.

Ellen: He can be so _____. And _____, he called me from his car phone and he _____ for fifteen minutes.

Alex: Car phone? What kind of car _____?

Ellen: It was probably the limo. He was on his way to the stables.

Alex: I'm starting to get a warm glow inside. This guy _____. This guy is your father. Ellen, you're rich. I love you.

Ellen: Alex, _____.

Alex: Wow, I can't believe this. I fall in love with a girl _____ money. And she _____ rich. My instincts are incredible.
Ellen, when _____?

Ellen: Alex, he's rich, not me. I don't want anything _____ his money.

Alex: Oh I understand, I'll _____ it.

Ellen: Stop it!

Alex: Come on, you know I'm kidding. Look, I'm sorry I got you into _____ difficult situation.

Ellen: I don't know how I'm gonna _____ this weekend with him.

Alex: Look, he's coming _____, right? And he _____ he wanted to see you. Give him a chance.