

family guy /1/ cars and choices what do you do for a living? do you like your job? doesn't it bother you that you spend so much time driving a car? how long are you planning on staying before you start looking for a new job?

I am a traveling salesman. that's what I do for a living. do I like this job? well, let me put it this way: if I didn't enjoy driving a car, I would definitely hate doing this. but since I am a big fan of cars I hardly ever get bored. you also get to listen to a lot of music while traveling, which I like. I've had the job for five years now. my plan is to stay on for two more years and then quit and find another one.

what kind of job will you be looking for? are there a lot of jobs out there that you could do? or are your choices limited? do some of the jobs require qualification that you don't have?

I haven't decided yet. I'm afraid my choices are limited because I don't speak a foreign language. I don't know how to work a computer, either. unless you have at least one of these skills, you will likely have trouble getting a good job these days. yes, I do know that I should have gone to college when I was younger but my parents never encouraged me to get an education and now I'm too old to study. I can't imagine myself sitting over books and taking exams and competing with all those young go-getters.
