

family guy /2/ married for children

the next question will be about your family. you're married, aren't you? how did you and your wife first meet? when you proposed to her, did she say yes right away or did you have to wait for her to make up her mind?

_____ fifteen years. _____ began _____ when we _____ together. I was _____ hired her. _____ I _____ noticed her but soon I began to _____ her _____ my cubicle. one day I _____ to ask her out. we went _____ and then we went to this nice little bar down the street. we both had a great time, laughing and _____. I'd never _____ with a girl before. four months later I _____ her. she _____ some time _____ about it but _____ she said yes. we _____ that summer.

does your wife kiss you when you get home from work? do you look forward to seeing her and talking to her at the end of a long day? or are there a lot of fights between the two of you? I mean, do you and your wife still love each other?

_____ say _____ but it's not that simple. we don't talk _____ we _____. I _____ I am crazy about Lilly _____ I was _____. or that I _____ her when I get home from work. _____ that this marriage _____ a habit for both of us. _____ we see each other every day we don't really talk much anymore. we've _____ quiet around each other. we don't fight, _____ but that's because we live two separate lives. we _____ anything so _____.