

WINNIE THE POOH: SWANS & BEARS

If you have read another book about Christopher Robin or if you happen to know the story, you may remember that he once had a swan (or the swan had Christopher Robin, I don't know _____) and that he used to _____ this swan Pooh. That was a long time ago, and when we said good-bye, we took the name with _____, because we didn't think the swan would want it _____.

Well, when Edward Bear said that he would like to be _____ an exciting name, Christopher Robin said right away, without _____ to think, that he was going to be Winnie-the-Pooh from then _____. And he was. So, I have explained the Pooh part and I will now explain the rest of it.

You can't be in London for long without _____ to the Zoo. There are people who enter the Zoo at the beginning, called WAY IN, and walk as quickly as they can _____ every cage _____ they get to the _____ called WAY OUT, but the nicest people go _____ to the animal they love the most, and stay there.
