

DH: MAMA SOLIS

MAMA SOLIS: I don't see why you have to have a servant. What is it that she can do that you can't?

GABRIELLE: That's not what it's about. It's a big house. I need help.

MAMA SOLIS: It's only called help when you do some of the work yourself.

GABRIELLE: I supervise. You could call that work.

MAMA SOLIS: I could but I won't. Look, you pay her $300 a week. That's $15,000 a year. Carlos, you always say how you're not putting away enough for retirement. If you ask me, this takes a big chunk out of that money.

CARLOS: You know, baby, it would be a good idea if we cut back on expenses.

GABRIELLE: You expect me to take care of this place all by myself?

CARLOS: Other women manage...

CARLOS: It's driving me crazy, mama. It could be any one of these guys she's having the affair with. How do I know which one it is?

MAMA SOLIS: Don't worry about it. I'm not letting her out of my sight.

CARLOS: Now, who the hell is that? See that guy she's talking to? Look at the way she's touching him. You think that's the guy she's having the affair with?

MAMA SOLIS: Carlos, don't be stupid. A guy she talks to in public isn't someone you're gonna worry about.

CARLOS: So it's someone that she doesn't talk to. What do I have to do? Beat up every guy in town?

MAMA SOLIS: Marriage takes work.
