

kid-dropper /1/ a good mom

If people wanna think I, that's their problem. 'Cause I know I'm a good mom, and But damn, Social Services don't go after me I dropped Liondrae at Dollar City today.

After it happened, some skinny guy and some uptight bitch turned around to stare at me and I thought, "What are you looking at?" they were judging me and they should call the cops. I cops my door.

I drop my baby. Why aren't people when everything's fine? Liondrae's sitting in his high chair eating candy bars? Or when I in the sink with his diaper on? I love my baby so much. I don't wanna smack him around. His older sister, Rywanda, wanna slap But only because she misbehaves, not because I like to hit my babies

....., it if he trying to grab that silly pink thing off the toy shelf. I had him in my right arm and he my shoulder and was spreading his arms, and I had my other hand on the grocery cart, so he topples over! Doesn't he know I can't watch him every second?
