

THE LADY WRITES SO MANY DECISIONS TO MAKE

We are terribly _____ and poor, and feel that _____ things will go better for us in England or, alternatively, England (like Czechia) is a better country to be poor _____. Also, we had been afraid that the children would be _____, but they both seem very excited and pleased. We don't know whether it would be better to rent or sell the house, and many other details that are not very interesting to discuss here.

Anyway, _____ you come to North America at Easter or early summer, which is probably impossible, it _____ be difficult for me to show you Niagara Falls. However, you will be always and forever welcome wherever we are in England. Also, we still _____ the idea of the farmhouse in France _____ next year or later. (The house in Slovakia is perhaps more of a dream than a real possibility)

I think I should stop now, in _____ this is just too much English to have all at _____. Again please forgive me for the long silence and _____ write soon and let me know how you are and what is happening.

broke » case » do » either » either » in » keep » may » once » unless » upset