

THE LADY WRITES SOLDIERS' TENDER PARTS

You may have heard that this year, even we in Canada, the _____ country on the planet, where nothing ever happens, have been having news. While I was in Czechia, there was the failure of the constitutional accord, which was _____ to give the Quebeckers everything they wanted and stop them going on about independence. Then, interestingly enough, in Quebec the Mohawk Indians decided THEY wanted some independence from the Quebeckers, who didn't like that at all. They blockaded a _____ bridge into Montreal for three months (and the St. Lawrence River is about four _____ as wide as the Vltava in Prague) and had armed warriors with machine guns threatening everyone, even killed a policeman.

However, this being Canada, _____ from the policeman who was killed by mistake, there was no bloodshed, just a lot of _____. In fact, the Canadian soldiers were very dignified and stood their _____ while these awful Indian women screamed and spat at them and tried to kick them in the tender parts.

Hard to tell you of the _____ - the Indians in Canada have special status - they pay no taxes of any kind, have free education, free health and, if they live on the reservations, free almost everything else, _____ they do not have nice lives at all but live in the most terrible squalor and are mostly drunk and desperate and killing themselves in large numbers. It is very difficult for them to continue their traditional way of life, trapping and hunting in the forests, and they don't _____ to be very successful at integrating into modern urban life.
