Best thing about being single: You get to date a lot of women. I can't imagine not being free and having someone argue with my decisions. If anyone nags me, I say, "Hey, if I wanted to be nagged, I'd get married." That pretty much ends that discussion.

Morning routine: I haven't seen the morning since 1968. I don't go to bed until four or five and I sleep for at least nine hours every day. Some people look down on those who sleep in or get up late, but there are successful late risers like the Russian president Putin.

Always in the fridge: Herbs. Anything that goes wrong with the body I can fix with herbs.

Evening routine: That's when I work. I go to the office and have meetings between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. Then I go home, exercise, bathe and work until 2 in the morning.

Procrastination technique: I make piles of things and then move the piles, as if that's addressing the problem. If I put a pile on the desk, that's supposed to mean "urgent," but more often than not it sits there for weeks.

Taking work home: I'm actually much funnier offstage than onstage. You are never as free onstage as you are with friends at dinner.
