

mary's story / 1-1 / running into lisa

Lisa and I were good friends in high school but when each of us went to a different college we stopped seeing each other. After college, I began to work as a volunteer in peace corps and I was told to choose a country in eastern europe where I was going to teach english. I really wanted to go to a more exotic place, such as Africa, but it had to be europe. I looked at all the options and finally I chose the Czech Republic. I had no idea what to expect but I was pretty excited.