

do you know what were the worst years? (what ... were?)

was there anything good about the whole thing?

what did you realize you were good at?

what did you do when things were bad?

is there a saying that you always thought of?

after high school, did you keep doing what you had started?

did you have any skills to offer? (that you could offer?)

what kind of job were you looking for?

did you at least know how to type?

was there anything at all for you to do?

were you surprised to see that no one was interested in you?

what are you expected/supposed to do when you're eighteen?

what is there to do when you can't get a job?

why were you kicked out of the Army? (did you get kicked) does the Army want you to think?

what are you supposed to do when you are given an order?
