

vive la resistance

we'd better keep quiet so dad can't hear us if he finds out we didn't go to bed he'll get mad he doesn't think we're old enough to stay up late he still thinks of us as little schoolboys in a way he's right, we do act childish sometimes but still, he should give us more credit we may not be as smart as he is yet but once we've grown up, we'll show him anyway, at this point we'd do well to shut up I would hate to have a black eye in school tomorrow
