

storyville 18 rabbit-like couple

RABBIT-LIKE COUPLE: Peter and Rachel seem like a nice enough couple, and they always say hello when I _____ them in the lobby. I also understand that they need to express their love physically. _____ right now, I need to _____. It seems like every night, just as I finally start to drift off to sleep, the [sounds of lovemaking] _____ again. You _____ them, though: they _____. Once they _____, they don't _____. But, like I say, young love is the most beautiful thing in all the world and the people who complain the most are _____ who _____.

WEED ON THE PORCH: The guy kept looking at the bag of weed lying on the ground five feet away and he was growing suspicious. I figured the best thing I could do was say goodbye, get into the car, circle around the block a few times and then go back for the weed when _____. After driving around for about 15 minutes, I _____ to the house and made a break for it. I got up to the porch, grabbed the bag but on the way back I hit a squeaky floor board. I saw a shadow move inside the house. They must have heard me. I _____ that weed for dear life and jumped over the side of the porch. But my right foot got caught in a bush as I landed, and _____ I sprained my ankle. It hurt _____. I limped over to my car as fast as I could and _____ back to my workplace. Well, _____, I didn't have to work for the rest of the night. (I gave 'em some _____ about how I slipped off a curb.) _____, I got some days off. So this Thanksgiving, I am thankful that I'm getting paid without working. I ain't too thankful about the fact that I can't get out and _____, though. _____ are getting pretty soft without someone like me to ___+___ them ___+___. But when I get back, I'll be in rare form, ready to cut loose _____.
