

storyville /6/ dodi's dad

DID DODI'S DAD DOTE ON DODI? When the Boss went on TV after the crash saying what a wonderful son Dodi was, I was surprised. I must admit I didn't consider them that close. I felt the Boss would have liked Dodi to have been more like himself, I suspect he wished Dodi was a bit of a go-getter and not such a lazy-ass. Sometimes he didn't feel like seeing him at all. Once Dodi turned up for a meeting and his father closed the doors so he couldn't get in. He ended up getting dragged away fuming and cursing.

WHAT GUYS DO TO GIRLS So what if Cindy walked out on you. Screw her! You don't need her. She's trash! You're better off without her. She's a bitch! All she did was save you the trouble of having to dump her! She was nothing. She was less than nothing, actually. Tomorrow you're gonna find someone even hotter and you know what you're gonna do? You're gonna have your fun with her and then you're gonna dump her just for the hell of it. And you know what? You're not gonna feel bad about it at all. You know why? Because we're guys and that's what guys do!

WATCH OUT FOR PIGS Now, even if you're sitting there rolling your eyes, thinking that you know it all, you'd better read this anyway. I don't want you getting stopped by the cops or looking weak 'cause you forgot something as simple as having some breath freshener on hand. I'm looking out for you, you'd better believe I am. So, here are some of my basic rules: Keep an eye out for pigs. See, cops hate to see guys like you and me having fun. In fact, the only time they have fun is when they stop us from cruising. That's why you gotta play it cool. Keep a low profile in places where they might be, especially donut shops. Also, have a good story ready in case you do get pulled over, and never use it more than once.
