

a teacher's delight

I can't wait to see those kids again there's nothing like being among kids and being able to hit them with a broom

I wonder where I put it, though

I haven't been able to find it all day I must have brought it home with me yesterday and I guess I left it by the door this morning oh, this spoils the whole day for me

I can't stand kids unless I can beat them up those little bastards are driving me crazy oh, why don't I use the gun I keep in my drawer?
