

the great zucchini /3/ air-hockey & appointment book

we've been talking about your job. let's now turn our attention to your life, which is even more interesting, I guess. isn't it?

I'm _____. a friend _____ likes to tell a story about my new apartment. I got this place a couple weeks ago. _____
_____ except a coffee table and a couch and I had some money _____ new furniture. but I didn't do _____ _____ do.

what would everyone else do? and what did YOU do?

well, the first thing _____ is a bed, right? I mean, if you _____. _____, he came _____ a couple days after I moved in and _____ a bed there was a huge air-hockey table in the middle of the room. as a matter of fact, I _____ _____ a bed. I don't _____ on the floor. _____ I think about it, a bed would be nice, _____.

I couldn't help noticing that you carry this little book with you wherever you go...

that's my appointment book. it's the only place I can _____ what _____. if _____ that, I would have no idea where I _____ or when. I never leave home without it. I don't _____ it in the car _____, _____ the car _____. but that's just the way I am.

would you call yourself disorganized?

_____ disorganized would be an understatement. I don't _____ any records of anything. _____ taxes, I try _____ to pay them but it does slip my mind _____. I have a tax debt but it's not _____.

you also seem to avoid using your car, you prefer taking a cab, I wonder why that is well, I sort of _____ my parking tickets. _____ I got one, I _____ just toss it in the glove box. when a friend of mine and I _____ for speeding _____, I _____ _____ that it was him behind the wheel and not me. if I _____

_____, I _____ in real trouble